ADULT EDUCATION POLICY

Renumbered from 1900

1800

Classes for adults may be offered for evening school participation in those subjects where there is an approved instructor available and there is sufficient enrollment to keep the class self-supporting.

An adult shall be considered to be a person of post-high school education or age.

Tuition fees will be determined so as to insure the entire program will be self-supporting. Tuition fees will be payable in advance. If tuition fees are not paid the individual will not be able to participate in the program. Cost of materials, supplies and texts will be borne by the student.

In any case where course enrollment exceeds the predetermined limit, residents of the district will have preference and within that group chronological order of registration will hold preference.

The administration of the program shall be the responsibility of the superintendent's designee.
